Dear Parents,

I write regarding home-school communication.

It has come to my attention that there have been some recent comments posted on social media regarding pupils at CJS.

We always aim to work in partnership with our parents. If any parent has a concern regarding anything that may have happened in school concerning their child, I urge you to contact the class teacher in the first instance, year group leaders or myself.

Mrs J Stephenson – Year 3 Group Leader
Miss K Ballington – Year 4 Group Leader
Miss M Fogg – Year 5 Group Leader
Mr S Beeston – Year 6 Group Leader

Clearly, the best way to approach any issues is to discuss it with relevant staff who are best placed to monitor the situation and put a plan in place to help resolve things.

I ask parents to refrain from posting comments on social media (Facebook, Spotted: Chellaston, Twitter) about any issues at school. Such comments could identify certain pupils, cause upset to other families and may affect the safeguarding of young people in the local area.

Despite investigating the recent comments on social media, the school is not in a position to identify which children may be involved. I ask that any parents who may be aware of any details to contact myself at school and the matter will be treated in the strictest confidence.

Thank you to the vast majority of parents who communicate directly with the school and avoid using social media to discuss school issues. At CJS we welcome the opportunity to discuss any matters with parents and urge any parent with any concerns to contact the school. In this way we can work together to keep all our children safe and help them to be happy at school.

Thank you for your support.

Yours sincerely,

Mr J Emery
